Applying Principles of Jazz to Collaboration
123vc.pbworks.com

Ken Conn
kconn@i2itech.com
@kennethconnjr

Roxanne Glaser
rglaser@i2itech.com
@roxanneglaser

Janine Lim
janine@andrews.edu @outonalim

Amy Spath
ASpath@cnyric.org
@amyspath
123VC Jazzing Up Your Curriculum with Videoconferencing is born - 2005
123 VC! Jazzing Up Your Curriculum with Videoconferencing

2006 Partners
Berrien County ISD, Michigan
Cooperating School District, St. Louis, MO
El Paso ISD, Texas
ESC Region 8, Mt. Pleasant
ESC Region 12, Waco, Texas
Lamar Consolidated ISD, Texas
Region 4, New York City
Temple ISD, Texas
123 VC: Jazz & Leadership Jazz

Michael J Gold @jazzimpact

Principal at Jazz Impact. Using jazz to teach organizations the skills of: Leadership, Employee Engagement, Autonomy, Passion, Risk, Innovation, Listening.
Autonomy
Reliability
Persistence
Risk
Operate from an Abundance Perspective
Innovation
Flexible Organizational Skills
Listening
Honesty
Openness Willingness Trust Initiative
Sensitivity
Curiosity
Apprenticeship
It’s Not about the Context; it’s about the Collaboration.
Group Work vs. Collaboration
Ken Conn
kconn@i2itech.com
@kennethconnjr

Roxanne Glaser
rglaser@i2itech.com
@roxanneglaser

Janine Lim
janine@andrews.edu
@outonalim

Amy Spath
ASpath@cnyric.org
@amyspath

123vc.pbworks.com
Activity: Listen for turn-taking & supporting

JL: I think this is the best choice - wdyt?: this one starts at 2:18 - and you can see the different instruments take their turn:
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DvWvzRHDYg8

- This may work if we don’t get anything better.

When the Saints Go Marching In (Jam Session), https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UVqo_h5rBw8 some options: starting at :56 on this one; don’t need the pictures though:

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CS2PDhBZqKw