2.5 day COIL design workshop for 6-16 people

Fee: $8500 + travel costs if in-person and overnight is required

Mentored Practice Online

Additional time with experienced faculty and instructional design mentors, available to each team for up to 12 hours of mentoring before, during or after a COIL collaboration. This could be used to plan an additional COIL course, refine or redesign elements of the planned course, and/or to support the running of the course. This additional mentoring can offer support for group dynamics, developing intercultural competence, classroom management, communications issues, reflection, etc.

Fee: $2000 per team of 4-6 faculty

COIL COLLABORATION REVIEWS Online

- Observation of COIL collaboration activities
- Discussion with COIL teaching faculty and supporting staff (if applicable)
- Discussion with students, if desired
- Review of syllabi, activities, communications tools
- Written report and recommendations

Fee: $1000

COIL STRATEGIC PLANNING AND IMPLEMENTATION

- Identifying a COIL implementation team from appropriate areas of the institution
- Readiness and needs assessment
- Asset mapping
- Alignment and articulation of COIL benefits to the Institution's Strategic Plan
- Faculty outreach planning
- Support for development of timeline, milestones and written plan
- Quarterly check-in and support meetings

COIL Strategic Planning is generally a yearlong engagement, beginning with identifying an appropriate COIL team at the institution. This team meets regularly over the course of 3 months to develop the plan for introducing and scaling COIL at the institution with support from the SUNY COIL Center. Milestones and a timeline are identified. Implementation support is provided through 90 minute online quarterly check in and support meetings. Involvement of 1-2 COIL Center staff for approximately 70 hours total. Generally includes one or two days spent on campus.

Online and/or in-person (additional charge for cost of travel if overnight is required)

Fee: Typically $20,000 – 50,000 dependent on scope of the engagement

CUSTOM CONSULTING

A member of the SUNY COIL Center staff will work with your institution to discuss your needs, support your planning and implementation, or advise you on any aspect of COIL work.

Typical Fee: $220/hour or $1000/day

ABOUT THE SUNY COIL CENTER

Vision

We envision a world free from implicit bias, where people engage across differences to fully connect with others. We believe that an educational environment that fosters shared values, mutual understanding, and critical digital literacy, and which promotes interaction across boundaries to develop leadership, collaborative problem solving and contextualized decision making, will make this vision a reality.

Mission

To cultivate an engaged educational environment by providing the resources, support, and professional network to enable educators and institutions to incorporate virtual engagement opportunities for all students and faculty. We do this by:

- Simplifying the process of integrating collaborative online learning into educational practices
- Empowering the professional community of practice dedicated to thoughtful and quality growth of the field
- Inspiring and supporting educators to offer engaging and globally relevant educational experiences
- Developing materials and resources for independent professional development
- Making meaningful connections between people, cultures, and ideas

Background

SUNY COIL Center activities align directly with the mission of the State University of New York (SUNY), which is “to provide the people of New York educational services of the highest quality, with the broadest possible access, fully representative of all segments of the population...” In meeting the mandate of its mission, SUNY seeks to ensure that all students have access to educational opportunities that allow them to engage with other people and perspectives; develop greater understanding of differences; and build important 21st century skills, such as teamwork, self-motivation and reflective communication. COIL methodology was developed to bring these opportunities into the classroom by connecting students and professors with their peers in other countries for collaborative online work, thereby ensuring that all students have equitable access to global learning. The COIL Center was established in 2004 as part of SUNY’s Office of Global Affairs.
